

Special Radical Women Meeting

The Raucous, Radical Roots of Seattle Gay Pride

Two veteran organizers recount battles against rightwing bigots, as well as volatile internal debates in the queer community, that shaped the colorful history of pride celebrations in our city. They will also offer insights for resolving the schisms, controversies and financial scandals surrounding this year's pride events.

Speakers

George Bakan

Editor and publisher of Seattle Gay News. Founding member of the Freedom Day Committee which organized Seattle Pride from 1983 until the late 1990s.

Su Docekal

Longtime lesbian rights and AIDS activist who co-founded the Stonewall Committee for LGBT Rights in 1981.

Py Nae Kot, AKA Jeannette Allen

Nii Mii Puu AKA Nez Perce Nation, now founder of the People@Large, a Native cultural organization based in Seattle

Special Exhibit

A complete collection of yester-year posters from Seattle Pride marches will be on display at New Freeway Hall from June 11-25.

Thursday, June 21, 7:30pm

Dinner at 6:30pm for $7.50 donation

New Freeway Hall, 5018 Rainier Ave. S. W

4 blocks south of S. Alaska St. at the Hudson stop on #7 bus line.

Everyone Welcome!

For info, or to arrange childcare (in advance), call 206-722-6057.
RWseattle@mindspring.com • www.radicalwomen.org